

RICARDO ≡ CASTORRI

RELEVANT CASES

- Mediated the discussions between the partners of a technology startup with the aim of restructuring the company's equity in preparation for the entry of a new strategic investor in its share capital.
- Mediated the discussions between the partners of a law firm, members of the first and second generations of the same family, with the aim of revising the firm's equity and governance structure.
- Mediated the discussions between the partners of an information technology company with the purpose of agreeing the terms and conditions for the company's partial dissolution.
- Mediated the discussions between different branches of a prominent family from Rio Grande do Sul with relevant industrial and real estate assets, with the aim of settling existing disputes between the founder's heirs.
- Mediated the discussions between three partners of a family-owned logistics operator in Rio de Janeiro with the goal of renegotiating the shareholders agreement through which they control the company.
- Advised and represented one of the branches of the third generation of a prominent family from Bahia in the negotiations and disputes regarding the partial dissolution of its partnership in the control of relevant financial and industrial assets.
- Advised and represented one of the branches of the second generation of a prominent family from Santa Catarina in the negotiations and disputes arising from their succession in a group of companies with relevant investments in construction and utilities.
- Advised and represented a multinational corporation in its negotiations and disputes with its partners in the controlling group of a Brazilian publicly traded company operating in the mining and steel sectors.
- Advised and represented a multinational corporation in its negotiations and disputes with its Brazilian partners with the aim of dissolving their joint venture in the automotive products sector.
- Advised and represented several members of a prominent family from Rio de Janeiro in their negotiations and disputes within the controlling group of a publicly traded company with relevant assets in the petrochemical sector.
- Advised and represented a prominent logistics operator from Rio de Janeiro in its negotiations and disputes with its partners in the controlling group of a publicly traded company operating port terminals in Brazil.
- Advised and represented a multinational corporation in its disputes and negotiations with its Brazilian partner for the control of a publicly traded company operating in the distribution and retail of food and consumer goods.